

THE FIRST WORD

2015 - 04 First United Methodist Church – 109 West College Street – Winnsboro, SC 04 - 2015

---

In the early 1900s, Howard Thurman wrote an amazing piece of poetry, The Work of Christmas:

When the song of the angels is stilled, When the star in the sky is gone,

When the Kings and Princes are home, When the shepherds are back with their flocks, The work of Christmas begins:

To find the lost, To heal the broken, To feed the hungry, To release the prisoner, To rebuild the nations, To bring peace among brothers and sisters, To make music in the heart. This is the work of Christmas.

Did you just read the above and think it's a little odd for me to bring up Christmas during this Lenten season? Well.... read the poem again. What could it mean for your life today? It seems to me that Easter is the perfect time to reflect upon the work of Christ in our lives. How has the Christ child, whose birth we celebrated just a few short months ago, grown in your heart and life this Lenten season?

What if this poem was re-named "The Work of Christians" - what would it mean for us then? I believe the work of Christians is to create a space for God. To be fully present in the life God has given you, and allow space to be fully present with God.

One way we might seek Christ's presence is to be more attentive to all God has created. Seek God's presence in nature and in art. Listen for God's voice in music and or the sound of a baby crying. (I've certainly been doing the latter quite a lot lately!) Feel God's presence in the warmth of sunlight or the rain drop that falls on your cheek. Seek God's presence through spiritual practices: setting aside time every day to be in prayer, to journal, to read scripture, and be fully present with God. Be in fellowship with other believers in the body of Christ: attend worship, participate in the life of our church, get to know other disciples here at First UMC, study and work beside one another in service and mission.

My friends, when we do small things with great love and presence, it means something. When we choose to fight busy and choose to be present, it changes everything. It changes our heart, our life and our faith. Let's choose to be fully present with one another and with God in the coming Easter season.

My prayer for you this Easter is to let your eyes and hearts drink in the blessings in front of you. Put your phone down. Close your computer. When something great happens, don't say, "I wish I would have had my camera," say, "I'm so grateful that just happened!" Here's to long conversations over shared meals, strengthened relationships, and celebrating a season of presence!

Please join us in worship on Sunday, April 5th for a glorious Easter celebration. Our District Superintendent, Rev. Cathy Jamieson-Ogg will be preaching a powerful message of resurrection. Bring a friend and come with expectant hearts, ready to proclaim Christ is Risen! Alleluia! Amen!

That we have a Library? Mrs. Margaret DuBard can answer any questions you may have. There are reference books, fact, fiction and many Methodist related books available to check out. This is just another great ministry of our church. Stop in and take advantage of these resources! It's the Green Door on the first floor!

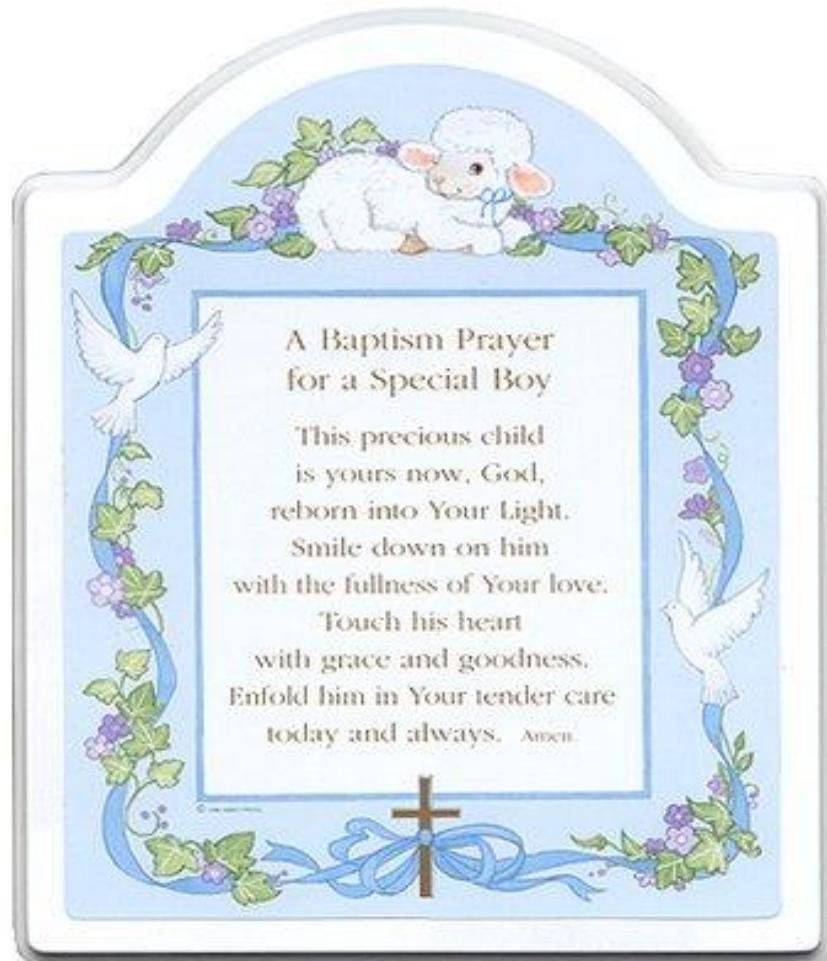

Did somebody say Yard Sale? Yes, we are taking donations for the 26 Mile Yard Sale that will be here this September sponsored by the Winnsboro Chamber of Commerce. This year, we plan to have a table set up to sell hand made goods. If you knit, crochet, needlepoint, sew, make Christmas crafts or have any handmade goods, please make plans to donate them to the church to be sold during the yard sale.

The Easter Story

Down

- The father-in-law to the high priest. Jesus was first brought to him.
- Another name for the place of His crucifixion.
- The garden where Jesus prayed before He was arrested.
- And it was the third hour, and they ____ Him.
- This was written and set over His head: "____ of the Jews"
- Judas betrayed Jesus with a ____.
- "Go ye into the world and preach the gospel to every ____."
- Joseph took His body down and wrapped it in fine ____.
- The prisoner released by Pilate instead of Jesus.
- The pharisee that brought spices for His burial.
- The apostle who betrayed the Christ.
- "Why seek ye the ____ among the dead?"
- He was taken up; and a ____ received Him out of their sight.
- Judas betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of ____.
- And they crucified Him, and parted His ____ casting lots.
- He appeared to two disciples on the way to this village.
- Jesus told Peter to feed His ____.
- The Roman governor who washed his hands of the whole affair.
- This was rolled in front of the tomb and then sealed.
- His sweat was as it were great drops of ____.
- The soldier pierced His side with this.
- He is not here: for He is ____ as He said.

Across

- It means "A place of a skull;" Where He was crucified.
- These guys were crucified on each side of Him.
- And He was numbered with the ____.
- Jesus was anointed with precious ointment in preparation for His ____.
- This part of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom.
- And when the sixth hour was come, there was ____ over the whole land.
- This Roman said, "Truly this was the Son of God."
- The high priest who said it was expedient that one man die for all.
- The ____ of blood was purchased with the betrayal money.
- The disciple that took Mary home as his own mother.
- He appeared first unto Mary ____.
- "Father, ____ them; for they know not what they do."
- He shed His blood so our ____ would be forgiven.
- The Last Supper was a celebration of this Jewish holiday ____.
- The ruler of Galilee.
- This was sent to strengthen Him when He was praying in the garden.
- This apostle denied that He knew Jesus three times.
- This wealthy man of Arimathea buried Him.
- The doubtful apostle.
- "A spirit has not ____ and bones as ye see me have."
- And they stripped Him, and put on Him a scarlet ____.
- They gave Him this to drink when He was on the cross.

At the Foot of the Cross

by Steven

At the foot of the cross, I lay it all down
Everything in my life, that's hidden deep inside
I give it away, for my Savior to heal
These fears that I have, that I've buried for years
At the feet of Jesus, my heart pours out tears
As I kneel and pray, my thoughts become clear
And I finally see what's so very dear

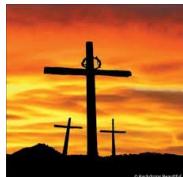

At the foot of the cross, I cry out in pain
Anguishing thoughts pour out like rain
But, amidst these tears, I find a peace so calm
As Jesus scurries in, the darkness fades away
My heart is freed, my mind once again sane
And the past torments I've had are forever washed away
My life burns brighter, like the dawning of a new day

At the foot of the cross, I'm loved and not lost
Where the Holy drops of blood, have paid off sin's costs
And the Savior was taken, now risen once more
Through the grace of God, the veil was torn

And the world was cast a new rope of hope
Dangling freely from Heaven, climbable by faith alone
To an eternal place, where sin and death are dead

At the foot of the cross, life can be found
On your knees draped in blood, on Calvary's sacred ground.

Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed. John 20:24-31 v. 29

Easter and the United Methodist Church

The Easter Season, also known as Eastertide or the Great Fifty Days, begins on Easter Day and ends on Pentecost. Focusing on Christ's resurrection and ascension and the sending of the Holy Spirit (Pentecost), Eastertide is the most joyous and celebrative season of the Christian year. We celebrate the good news that in Christ's death and resurrection we, and all creation, are continually being made new by God's love and saving grace.

A few of the boys from First United Methodist Church!
